The Meeting.

BY MUDIE BRAIG.

A COFFIN in a cart!
Alone to Potter's field it goes;
Another wounded, maddened heart
Has burst the net of human woes.
Fear her onward faster;
Let the dust her follies hide;
Daughter of disaster!
Wretched suicide!

A Carriage dashes by
With furious haste and clattering din;
Mark ye the man of haughty eye,
Who lolls so sumptuously within.
Here the careless slayer;
There the wreck his will hath made;
Here the proud betrayer;
There the poor betrayed!

Richer were his and power
Her only store an honest name;
'Twas meet that he should pluck the flower,
And give a soul to death and shame.
One who might have lighted
Paths where angels love to dwell,
Withered and benighted,
Fell, for ever fell.

It is an oft told tale,
The world were all too good to hear;
Let humble error slink and quail,
But haughty sin has naught to fear.
Ye whose mask of honor
Glitters in the sight of men,
Heap your scorn upon her,
Spurn the Magdalen!

They meet no more on earth,
The careless slayer and the slain;
He wanders 'mid the halls of mirth,
And takes no thought of others' pain.
What will be the meeting
In the realms beyond the tomb?
What will be the greeting
On the day of doom?

Race with a Bull.

We have been heard to laugh 'some' at times, says the editor of the Knickerbocker, in our sanctum, we believe; but we doubt if a heartier guffaw ever came from it, than was awakened by the following 'Race with a Bull,' for which we have to thank a new correspondent in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. It almost eclipses 'The Cock-Fight in Havana,' which we published some time ago; in which an American sailor unbagged an uncouth 'bird' in the 'pit,' which, after receiving unresistingly two or three powerful 'digs' from 'Black Sultan,' his game antagonist, put one claw on his neck, and with the other—pulled his head off! He was an American Bald Eagle. Like the horse racers below described, the Spanish 'sportsmen' growled and grumbled; but they were compelled to submit to an 'inglorious defeat:'

"Some forty years ago, the members of a race-course near Brownsville, on the Monongahela, published notice of a race, one mile heats, on a particular day, for a purse of one hundred dollars, 'free for any thing with four legs and hair on.'

"A man in the neighborhood named Hays had a bull that he was in the habit of riding to mill with his bag of corn, and he determined to enter him for the race. He said nothing about it to any one, but he rode him around the track a number of times, on several moon light nights, until the bull had the hang of the ground pretty well, and would keep the right course. He rode with spurs, which the bull considered particularly disagreeable, so much so that he always bellowed when they were applied to his sides.

"On the morning of the race, Hays came upon the ground on horse back—on his bull. Instead of a saddle, he had dried an ox-hide, the head part of which, with the horns still on, he had placed on the bull's rump. He carried a short tin horn in his hand. He rode to the judge's stand, and offered to enter his bull for the race; but the owners of the horses objected. Hays appealed to the terms of the notice, insisting that his bull had 'four legs and hair on,' and that therefore he had a right to enter him. After a good deal of swearing, the judges declared themselves compelled to decide that the bull had the right to run, and he was entered accordingly.

"When the time for starting arrived, the bull and the horses took their places. The horse racers were out of humor at being bothered with the bull, and at the burlesque which they supposed was intended but thought that it would be over as soon as the horses started.

"When the signal was given, they did start. Hays gave a blast with his horn, and sunk his spurs into the side of the bull, who bounded off with a terrible bawl at no trifling speed, the dried ox-hide flapping up and down, and rattling at every jump, making a combination of noises that had never been heard on a race course before. The horses all flew the track, every one seeming to be seized with a sudden determination to take the shortest cut to get out of the redstone country, and none of them could be brought back in time to save their distance. The purse was given to Hays.

"A general row ensued, but the fun of the thing put the crowd all on the side of the bull. The horsemen contended that they were swindled out of the purse, and if it had not been for Hays' horn and ox-hide, which he ought not to have been permitted to bring upon the ground, the thing would not have turned out as it did.

"Upon this Hays told them that his bull could beat any of their horses any how, and if they would put up one hundred dollars against the purse he had won, he would take off the ox-hide and leave the tin horn, and run a fair race with them. His offer was accepted and money staked. They again took their places at the starting post, and the signal was given. Hays gave the bull another touch with his spur, and the bull gave a tremendous bellow. The horses remembering the dreadful sound, thought all the rest was coming as before. Away they went again in spite of all the exertions of their riders, while Hays galloped his bull around the track again and won the money."

Bully for the Bull!

THE BRINY GIRLS OF COHASSET.—The girls of Cohasset make nothing of going into the water and bringing out a shark or a mackerel by the nose. They dig clams with their toes, and open quohogs with a pinch of the fingers. They live chiefly on sea fare, so that when kissed they taste salt, and when they die are preserved half a century. Their hair, in their old age, turns into dry sea weed; and if they have worn caps in old age, the cap is stiff and glittering with crystallizations of salt; and if you fall in love with them in their youth, you find yourself in a pickle.

Doestick's on Billiards.

M. Berger, the celebrated French player, who is as much the King of the billiard table as Paul Morphy is Emperor of the chess board, has lately arrived in New York, as the guest of Mr. Michael Phelan. His wonderful playing has been the theme of the N. Y. papers for several days, but none of the reporters for the dailies being quite equal to the task of describing the miraculous shots of the rotund Frenchman, one of the weeklies prevailed on Doesticks to give his impressions, as follows:

I need hardly tell you that the game of billiards consists in punching ivory balls about on a big table covered with green cloth, that looks like half an acre of meadow land, with an india rubber fence around it; that the balls are punched with long wooden ramrods, with wax on the end to save the wood and leather put on to save the wax, and chalk put on to keep the leather from wearing out. You take your ramrod and rub some chalk on the little end; then you lean over the table; then you squint; then you lift up your leg; then you fiddle a little on your left hand with your ramrod, then you punch your ball; if your ball runs against the other man's ball, you've done a big thing, and you poke up a lot of buttons that are strung on a wire. This is all there is of the game of billiards. Anybody can punch billiards—I can, and maybe you could.

Well, Berger has come, the great French puncher, and of course I've been to see him punch a few billiards with Phelan. Phelan is a pretty fair puncher himself, but he can't punch so fast as Berger—in fact, B. has to give P. a hundred buttons or so in every game. I've often played with Phelan myself, but he always beats me; he has a private understanding with the man that pokes the buttons—when Phelan punches the balls, the man pokes buttons, when I punch the balls, nary button will the man poke—So Phelan goes out; but my game is a little the best—in fact I've challenged Phelan to play me a thousand buttons for a lot of money, and I've offered to keep the game myself, so as to be sure all is fair—Phelan's conspiracy with the men who poke the buttons is a disgraceful thing, it discourages young men and makes them think they can't punch billiards as well as Phelan can. But Berger has out generaled Phelan. Berger has bought over all Phelan's button-pokers—pays 'em more money than Phelan did, and now they give Berger all the buttons.

Ha! ha! Big thing on Michael!

Well, on Friday, Berger was going to do some punching, and there was I in the midst. Berger is a fat man; the top of his head is as bald as a goose egg, and he has got a stomach like a three foot celestial globe—in fact, he is shaped just like a billiard ball, and might be used for one, if you'd take his boots off and tie his heels to the back of his neck—only I don't want him to carom on me!

He brought all his own tools with him from France—a table that isn't so long by a few feet as Phelan makes his—a lot of balls and ramrods, and every thing. Room was full, all anxious to see the Frenchman punch; and the Frenchman punched, and pretty good punching it was. He made the balls hop all over the table, and generally had three in the air at once. Neil Bryant was there, and Neil is a pretty good judge of billiard punching. I did my favorite shot with great success, jumped my ball off the table, caromed on Neil Bryant, and holed it in a spittoon.

Phelan said it was a big thing, so did Neil. Berger rolled himself round to the corner of the table, chalked his ramrod, and executed a fancy lick; he made his ball run three times round the table, on the edge of the cushion, leap off at a sharp angle, carom on Neil Bryant, come back to the table, take eighteen cushions, and stop exactly on the centre spot.

Phelan had a try. He did one of the simple shots that I taught him—the one when the cue ball takes twenty one cushions, knocks the hats of three Dutchmen in the corner, comes back, and stops inside the string. Berger didn't think much of that, so he took off his coat, rolled up his sleeves, and put in a tremendous lick; the ball hit Phelan on the middle vest button, caromed on Neil Bryant, came back to the table and took four cushions, went out of the window, gave a stage driver a black eye, came back and took a cushion, caromed on Neil Bryant, took two cushions, went twice round the block, took a cushion, went out through another window, and came in through the sky light, took four cushions, and caromed on Neil Bryant, and all in four minutes, without stopping for breath, or sweating a hair.

All hands were occupied for forty minutes in reviving Phelan, who had fainted from envy.

Berger then made his grand shot—he put such a tremendous twist on his ball that it took every cushion on every table in the room, caromed on Neil Bryant, dodged out of the window, traveled once or twice up and down Broadway, ran into a shooting gallery, rang the bell nine times in rapid succession, and come back to the table, previously executing two brilliant caroms on Neil Bryant.

This concluded the show, as I supposed, but as I got to the corner of Broadway and Broome street, I caught sight of Neil Bryant rushing round the corner, closely pursued by two billiard balls, from which I suppose Berger must have done another fancy shot or two after I left.

But Phelan's conspiracy with the billiard markers all over the country is outrageous. He has every one of them so far under his control, that there isn't a place in the United States, where, when I play billiards with Michael Phelan, the marker doesn't count more for him than for me.

Indignantly yours,
DOESTICKS, P. B.

INITIATION OF A WIDE AWAKE.—All who enter the black republican Wide Awake Clubs, it is said, have to pass through a certain initiatory service, and be submitted to the following catechism:

Q. Do you believe in a supreme political being?—A. I do; the almigity nigger.

Q. What are the chief objects of the Wide Awake Society? A. to disturb democratic meetings, and to furnish conductors for the underground railroad.

Q. What is your opinion on the great questions of the day? A. I believe Abraham Lincoln was born, that he built a flat boat, and split three million rails.

Q. Do you drink lager? A. I am passionately fond of that commodity.

Q. If you are admitted as a member of this society, do you promise to love the nigger, to cherish him as you would a brother, and cleave to him through evil as well as good report, and hate the democrats as long as life lasts and water runs? A.—All this I solemnly promise to perform, so help me—Abraham.

The candidate is then invested with cap and cape, somebody gives him a slap on the side of the head and tells him to be Wide Awake!

☞A fine old German gentleman who has just returned from a visit to the "Fadderland," bringing with him his frau, met an old friend in a store up street, not many days since, and after some little conversation the old Gentleman inserted the index finger of his right hand among the short ribs of his better half, who had up to this time taken no part in the conversation but stood leaning against the counter communing "mit" herself. Her lord and master accompanied the poke with the exclamation of,

"Petsy! Petsy!"

"Vat you wants Shon."

"I wants to introduce mine friend, Shacob Stump, te tam fool, te more you knows him te better you gits acquainted mit him.

They are Sleeping.

They are sleeping; two lie nestled
In one little bed; the other
Only yet with life has wrestled
On the bosom of its mother.
Hushed are now in placid slumber
All their merry shouts and laughter,
Sounds of gambols out of number
Echo still from floor to rafter.

Around his head with arms outwining
Willy lies, his eyelids parted,
So that through the lashes shining
Furtive rays are strangely darted;
By some elfish vision troubled,
Wears his brows a shade defiant
Battling, with his fingers doubled,
Wizard grey or cruel giant.

Jenny's cheeks are flushed; her tresses
On the pillow loosely scattered,
And one little hand still presses
On the tiny shoes that pattered
Up and down the house but lately;
Laughter round her mouth still lingers
Rogueishly, and yet sedately
On her lips two slender fingers.

Healthy, happy, they are sleeping!
Baby's face so round and simple,
Although wet from recent weeping,
Has a smile in every dimple.
All is love and peace about them,
Wooing us to fresh care-risings,
God! what were this world without them?
How to thank Thee for these blessings!

Betty Wilson's Courtship.

"Oh, now, Bettie, do tell us about it," sez the gals.

"Bout what?" sez she.

"Why, about your cortship," sez the gals.

"Pshaw!" sez she, turning away her head and blushing dreadful, "you had better tell your own cortships yourselves, I reckon."

"Yes, but none of us never had any beaus, Bettie, and you are a married woman now. Come, now, and tell us about it. I do love to hear about courting, so much," says Betsy Bowers.

"Oh, yes, Bettie, do tell us."

"Well," sez Bettie, after a great deal of blushing and twisting about, "I'll tell you how it was, if that will suit you."

"Well, now," sez the gals, getting round her so they could hear good.

"Well," said Bettie, putting an emphasis on every other word, "when he come to our house to see me," (turning her head and kinder looking down sideways under her arm.) "fool! he'd better go to see somebody else I reckon. Gracious knows I didn't care nothing about him. Well, Henry he loved me Fool! he had better love hisself, I reckon."

"Oh, that's funny—go on," sez the gals.

"Well, then Henry he axed me if I'd have him.—Fool! he'd better have hisself, I reckon."

"Well," sez the gals.

"Well, mother was kinder flustrated, and sed yes. Fool! better mind her own biziness, I reckon."

"That's the sort of mammy," sed the gals, rubbing their hands.

"Then mother she went to town and got a white frock for me, and white gloves for me to put on my hands when I got married to Henry. Hem! fool! she'd better be married her self, I reckon."

"Well, go on, Bettie."

"Pshaw, now, I ain't a gwine to tell you no more about it, so I ain't."

"Oh, yes, Bettie, do go on, do tell us all about the wedding. Bettie that's a good soul."

"Oh, hush, gals, about such nonsense."

"Oh, do, now, that's a good soul."

"Well, by and by the preacher man came to our house and a whole heap of people to marry me.—Fool's! they had great deal better stay at home, I reckon. Gracious knows I didn't want to see them."

"Never mind. Go on."

"Well, then Henry he came to take me up to the preacher man to be married. Fool! I did feel so mad. And then —— Pshaw, gals, I can't tell any more."

"Bettie, now you're jist coming to the most interesting part. Oh, do tell us the rest, Bettie."

"I never sed nothing, and the preacher man he said I must have Henry to be my husband; when he was sick and when he was well, and when he was better and when he was worser, and rich and poor, and love him; and lord knows what a heap of things; and he said what he put together it was agin the law for anybody to take apart, and so I was married hard and fast the fust thing I knowed, to Henry."

"Well, what then, Bettie?" sez the gals, getting more and more interested all the time.

"Why, then the preacher man went home, and then the gals and fellers came a pullin' and a haulen and a kissin and a squeezin' me; and such other carryin's on as they did cut up. Fools! they'd great deal better kiss their own selves, I reckon."

"Go on, Bettie, tell us all about it," sez the gals.

"Well, then after they all went away, Henry he ——oh, pshaw, I ain't going to tell you another word more," sez Bettie; "when you git married yourselves you'll know all about it, I reckon."

NO MORE WORK TO DO.—Clasp the hands meekly over the still breast—they have no more work to do; close the weary eyes—they've no more tears to shed; part the damp locks—there's no more pain to bear. Kissed in the ear alike to love's kind voice and calumny's stinging whispers.

Oh, if in that stilled heart you have ruthlessly planted a thorn—if from that pleading eye you have ruthlessly turned away; if your loving and kindly word and clasping hand have come all too late—then god forgive you! No frown gathers on the marble brow as you gaze; no scorn curls chiseled lips; no flush of wounded feeling mounts to the blue-veined temples.

God forgive you! for your feet, too, must shrink appalled from death's cold river; your faltering tongue asks, "can this be death?" your fading eyes linger lovingly on the sunny earth; your clammy hands yield their last feeble flutter.

Oh, rapacious grave! yet another victim for thy voiceless sleepers! No warm welcome from a sister's warm lips! No throb of pleasure from the dear maternal bosom!

Silent all!

Oh, if these broken links were never gathered up—if beyond death's swelling flood there were no eternal shore—if the struggling bark there were no port of peace—if athwart that hovering cloud sprang no bright brow of promise:

"Alas for love, if this be all,
And naught beyond, oh, earth!"

FIT FOR A LAWYER.—An old lady walked into a lawyer's office, lately, with her boy of seven summers old.

"Squire, I called to see if you would like to take this boy, and endeavor to make a lawyer of him."

"Decidedly too young, madam. Have you no older boys?"

"Oh, yes, sir; but we mean to make farmers of them. My husband and I thought, however, that this one would make a first-rate lawyer, and so I brought him to you."

"Much too young, madam, to commence the study of a profession. But why do you suppose this boy better calculated to make a lawyer than your older sons—what are his peculiar qualifications?"

"Oh, well, you see, sir, he is just seven years old to day; when he was only five, he was saucy and impudent as any critter could be; and now he will steal everything he can lay his hand upon. Now, if he ain't fit for a lawyer, I would like to know what he will have to learn."

"Pretty well educated, I should think. Too young, however. Good morning, madam."

A Choice Extract.

The Visalia Delta is dead. It commenced its career 15 months ago with the wind in its favor, which increased to a perfect gale of prosperity. After a time, however, clouds arose. The Sun cast a shadow upon it, and it was taken flat aback by the result of the recent election. After going astern for about two weeks it finally went down. Peace to the old hulk.—Visalia Sun.

The above paragraph we clip from the Sun of Nov. 29th. Had the Delta died a natural death, the very questionable taste of the above choice specimen of literature might be passed over with silent contempt. But the public are well aware that the sudden and violent death of its editor, Mr. SHANNON, was the immediate and sole cause of the discontinuance of that journal. It is also well known that it was at the request of Mr. SHANNON that a Special Administrator was appointed, and arrangements made for its continuance. Since then it has been a matter of litigation, and the property is now in the hands of the Public Administrator. His counsel in the case were Messrs. BROWN, STAFFORD and Morris—all personal enemies of SHANNON, and friends of the Sun. The discontinuance of the paper will, as a matter of course, materially aid this latter journal, which, to use its own brilliant figure "cast a shadow upon it."

Taking into consideration the above chain of circumstances which has accidentally placed the Sun in its present position as the only journal in that county, we would hardly think it justifies the brag gart blustering tone of the article above quoted.—We envy not the head or heart of that man who, under such circumstances, could pen that cold blooded paragraph. It has the odor of the Ghoul fresh from his horrid banquet, and grates upon the ear like the croak of the ill-omened Raven, or the mournful echo from a tomb. It is a libel upon the Delta, whose place the Sun is endeavoring to supplant, and upon its former editor, whose

"Pale sheeted corse
Sleeps the dark sleep no venomed tongue can wake."

ITis with regret that we notice the continued agitation in certain portions of the Atlantic States of the profitless, and, if persisted in, ruinous question of secession. South Carolina, which seems to bear about the same relation to Disunion as Massachusetts to Abolitionism, has come out with a long list of imaginary grievances, endorsed, a "Declaration of Independence." It ought to be filed away with the petition of the three thousand New England clergymen. The same fanaticism characterises both. We have examined the list of grievancies as set forth by South Carolina. Bitter complaint and frequent mention is made of the hostility of the Northern or Free States to the "Peculiar Institution," but we fail to see any new cause of quarrel, and cannot conceive how the mere election of Lincoln can affect the Constitutional rights of any portion of the Confederacy. An oppressive act upon the part of his Administration would be a cause for complaint, and might even justify the agitation of secession, which remedy in any event, we look upon as worse than the disease. In setting forth their grievancies the complainants forget to tell us the nett results of the desperate remedy they propose. Would it remove them from their troublesome neighbors?—Would it prevent the recurrence of Fugitive Slave riots? Would it give any additional security to slave property in the Territories? No! on the contrary, those and all other grievancies complained of would be augmented ten fold. People talk of "peaceable secession;" the proposition is an absurdity. No unprejudiced man can, after a fair and impartial consideration of the subject, come to any other conclusion. The road to disunion lies through the bloody fields of civil war, and calls up to view the pictures of homes made desolate—property ruthlessly destroyed—brother fighting against brother—son against father; and that common heritage endeared to every American by the sacred title of "Our Country" erased from the roll of nations. From such a picture, and not an overdrawn one, of the evils which must ensue in the event of disunion, we turn with a shudder, and ask ourselves if there is not enough of the leaven of common sense and conservatism among the people of the United States to prevent the occurrence of such a catastrophe, with its long train of necessary evils. We have full faith in the dawn of returning reason, even in the most ultra States in our union; and that the sentiment promulgated by the immortal Jackson will be endorsed by an overwhelming majority of our countrymen. "The Union, it must and shall be preserved."

Pursuit and Capture of a Robber.—Early last summer a series of burglaries and robberies were committed by a couple of rascals, in Calaveras and Amador counties. In one case two men were fired upon in their own house, wounded, driven out and the place plundered. Officers started in pursuit, and one of them was captured, convicted, and sentenced to the State Prison. The other escaped, and for a time eluded pursuit. Lately he was traced into this county, and from the description sent was supposed to have been in Hornitos several days since, on a spree. He was then traced to Princeton, where he hired out to chop wood. On Thursday last, officers PAUL and THORN, of Calaveras and BENBROOK, of Hornitos, came upon him in the woods near Princeton. Thorn, who seems to be in luck thief hunting, happened to come in contact with him first, and told him to give himself up. Instead of that, the fellow threw down his axe and took to his heels. A lively race ensued, and as the robber was about to get into a dense chapparal thicket, Thorn fired upon and wounded him; and the fellow after running a few steps further gave himself up. He had a large knife in his hand which he threw away during the chase. The wound is pretty severe, and may prove fatal, the ball having passed through the point of the left shoulder blade, and ranging downward through the lungs. He is in Jail, and receives all needful attention. He went under the name of Green, in Calaveras, but called himself Williams here.

Murder of a Chinawoman.—Complaint was made last week before Justice WASHBURN, by a Chinaman, that a Chinawoman had died very suddenly and been buried under circumstances which led to the belief that she had been murdered. Dr. TAYNAY, Coroner, proceeded to disinter the body, which had been buried on the hill near Quartz Gulch. Upon examination it was found that the skull was fractured, and that several bruises had been inflicted upon other portions of the body. The verdict of the Coroner's Jury was, in substance, that the deceased came to her death by blows inflicted by some person unknown. The parties who kept the house, a John and Johnese, were arrested, but after examination John was discharged. The Grand Jury found a bill against the woman for murder, and she was remanded to Jail. From the evidence it appears that the deceased had been sick for about a year, and the old hag who waited upon her concluded that she would save her head in to save expenses.

Pastura News.—The Atlantic news as received by the Pony Expresses of the last two weeks, seems to be generally devoted to the Secession movements of South Carolina and a few other Southern States.—Excepting the fact of the election of Lincoln, the particulars of the late Presidential contest as received by the Pony, are vague and unsatisfactory. It is still very uncertain whether Breckinridge or Bell has carried a majority of the Southern and South western States—at least the precise number to be accredited to each is unknown. Some who have bets pending on the result in certain States, are kept in a state of suspense. Stock in Breckinridge and Bell rising and falling with alternate Pauses.

Peter Dalton received his sentence yesterday, for Grand Larceny; four years in the Penitentiary.

Miscellaneous Items.

Ned McGowan, "the Ubiquitous," has been elected a delegate to Washington from Arizona.

New Town.—It is stated in the Mirror that Col. FREMONT and others have laid out a new town on the coast, between Monterey and San a Barbara.

State Treasury.—The amount of funds in the State Treasury has swelled to $620,582.92.

The following Telegraphic Dispatches are to the Sacramento Union.

Sonora Dec. 2d.—The dead body of Judge J. C. Brunson, was found, yesterday morning, near town. It was stabbed in several places. Life was extinct when found. His cane was found broken and his arms cut badly, which shows that he had a severe struggle with the villain.

Columbia, Dec. 2d.—The flume of the Tuolumne Water Company was again blown up on Friday night. It is above Cow Creek, on the new line. It damaged the company several thousand dollars.—It deprives this mining district of water for two months or longer.

A miner in Nevada county died on the 28th ult. from the effects of poison oak.

The Knife at Virginia City.—The telegraph states that a saloon keeper, named Burke, was mortally stabbed on the 2d inst. by William Fitzgerald.

Suicide of a Printer.—Mr. James Hamilton, who has been for nearly two years employed in the office of the Amador Ledger, committed suicide on the 1st inst. by shooting himself in the right temple with a pistol. The verdict of the Coroner's Jury was, that the act was committed by the deceased while under a temporary aberration of mind.

It is said that Judge Baldwin will resign on the first of January.

Heavy Debt.—El Dorado county owes $112,072.78.

A late letter from the United States Commissioner of Pensions says there are now but thirty nine survivors of the army of the Revolution whose names are placed on the rolls for pensions.

Repudiation.—San Bernardino and Contra Costa are the only counties that voted to repudiate the debt.

The Prize Statue of Washington.—I. B. Mizner, agent of the National Monument Association for California, wishes the press to notice the fact that Hon. Jas. A. McDougal, Gen. O. C. Hall, G. W. Guthrie, Gen. J. P. Haven, and Frederick McCrellish, are the parties appointed by him to examine the returns of collections from the several counties, and make the award of the prize statue to that one which in their opinion contributed the most money in proportion to its total vote.

"Tho Thweet."—The editor of the Marysville Appeal has found a sweet scented embroidered handkerchief, supposed to be the property of some lady. Hope the owner will get it before it kills him.

Hutching's Magazine for December contains some excellent reading matter, including a description of the Alabaster Cave in El Dorado county.

Ladies' Fair.—We learn that the Ladies of Mariposa contemplate having a Fair on Friday the 21st of this month, at Concert Hall. In fact they have already met in convention, and constructed a Platform for the Campaign. The object is to raise funds for the support of the two ministers here.—One of them, Mr. BLYTHE, is in bad health, and both we suspect, are but poorly paid for their services. A Fair—well that will be a novelty in this place,—we have a faint recollection of one we attended in "Days of Auld Lang Syne." That was managed by the ladies—and by the way they did have some captivating ways of swindling a fellow. Some games of theirs, in which the per centage in favor of the fair dealers beat Monte two to one—and that is said by those who know, to be fifty per cent stronger than stealing. Still later, only a year or two since, "Ye gallyant Editor of ye GAZETTE" was taken in and done for somewhere near Columbia. They had an institution called a "grab bag," where a man had to pay a certain price for the chance of grabbing at several valuable articles. HOLMES invested $50, and won a pincushion and a rag baby. Don't we hope he will return here before the 21st, in time for the fair dam*sells* of Mariposa to take him in and do him brown.—But then they won't swindle—oh, no—everything will be done on the square—oh yes. At any rate, we advise everybody to go.

Latest from Holmes.—Our last intelligence from our absent Chieftain was under date of the 6th inst. at Visalia. He was well, and likely to do well being under the special care of the gentlemanly proprietor of the "Exchange Hotel," Mr. A. O. THOMS.

Thoms will look out for him and see that his bodily comforts in the line of food and fluid are attended to. "The winter of our discontent" is "made glorious summer" by the reception of this news, brought all the way through to Hornitos by WILSON, agent for FISHER'S Line of Stages, and thence to Mariposa by SNEIDER. He wrote under a press of business, having engaged to "go a hunting" on the following day. The writing is irregular—portions of it like the track of a buck rabbit through a gimasell thicket.

Court of Sessions.—People vs. Wash Taylor—Grand Larceny. Plead guilty. Convicted and sentenced to 1 year's imprisonment. Deering for prosecution; Corcoran, assigned by the Court as counsel for defendant.

The People vs. Peter Dalton—Grand Larceny. Verdict, guilty. Deering for prosecution; Harris and Daly for defendant.

Several minor cases of violation of License Law; Dealing Banking Games; Assault with Deadly Weapon; Drawing and Exhibiting Weapons, &c., not yet disposed of. Court will probably adjourn about the last of the week.

Grand Jury.—The Grand Jury for the December term of the Court of Sessions closed their labors on Thursday last. Thirty-seven indictments were returned, endorsed "true bills." Thirty three of these were for selling goods without License. The Jail and Hospital were visited, and favorable report made of the first named institution. Some improvements were recommended in the Hospital arrangements. The bedding was thought insufficient, and the wood furnished is too long, and the "indiginant sick" are not allowed an axe or saw to cut it with. This is done so that they can only get one end of a stick in the stove. It burns slowly, and saves fuel. On their way to the Hospital, the G. J. called and inspected the Lager Beer Brewery of LESSMAN & KOSTER. They report favorably.

Fatal Accident.—We learn from the Republican that Peter McGovern, an old resident of Murphy's Calaveras county, was instantly killed on the 30th ult. by the caving of a high bank of earth, under which he was at work. The deceased was held in high estimation by the community in which he lived, as a man of integrity. He leaves a wife and three children, and a large circle of friends to mourn his untimely fate.

The attention of traders in this and adjoining counties is directed to the advertisement of Ross, Dempster & Co., 113 Battery St., San Francisco. Importers and Wholesale dealers in Groceries and Provisions. Their stock is equal to any in the market, and is kept constantly supplied by fresh importations.

Friday evening last a drizzling shower of rain set in, with some indications of a long-winded storm. The following morning, however, witnessed a clear sunrise, and the snow-tipped summit of Mount Bullion and other surrounding hills were the only indications of a slight touch of the icy hand of King Winter.

Sentenced.—Wash Taylor, convicted last week before the Court of Sessions, of the crime of Grand Larceny, has been sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year. This is the lightest penalty possible for the offence.

New Livery Stable.—A new livery stable, opposite the Saloon of J. W. TORNEY is now being erected by JOHN R. MCCREADY.

Mr. Wilson, Agent of A. N. Fisher & Co., called at our office yesterday. He is on business connected with the establishment of a daily mail between this place and Stockton. A petition to that effect will be in circulation shortly. Everybody ought to sign and help circulate it, and everybody will, we reckon.

A new county, to be called Tejon, is proposed to be established out of portions of Los Angelos and Buena Vista. This latter county has never been regularly organized.

Atlantic Items---by Pony.

The dispatches to the Alta of the 4th inst. are as follows.

There was a great Republican demonstration at Springfield, Ill., last evening. Lincoln briefly returned thanks. Trumbull spoke at length. He was understood to define Lincoln's policy. He said that although he (Lincoln) was the candidate of a party as Chief Magistrate, he will belong neither to that or any other party; but would be the President of the whole country—equally of a State from which he received no vote, as of one from which he received the largest majority. The disunionists urged secession—now or never—because if they waited till Lincoln was inaugurated they would have no chance for secession. The Secession feeling in the South will pass away and the Union be preserved.

A better feeling prevails in Georgia. Large meetings have been held all over the State, which are much more conservative than previous meetings, but all are opposed to coercion. Some declare that the election of Lincoln is no cause for secession, though it is unfriendly. Legislation, however, that might be an outrage, would demand resistance.

Some arrests, including several officials, have been made in Chicago for violations of the Fugitive Slave Law, under indictments found in the U. S. District Court.

TWO DAYS LATER.

Meetings have been held in Texas in favor of calling an extra session of the Legislature.

The convention bill has unanimously passed both branches of the Georgia Legislature.

Gov. Letcher, of Virginia, is out in a letter defining the position of the State of Virginia. She will stand as a mediator—armed, if necessary—between the South and her Northern assailants.

Another war in Kansas is probable. Fort Scott has been taken by Montgomery. Great outrages have been committed by the Free State men. It is reported that the United States Judges and other officials have been driven out of the Territory by the threats of the outlaws, and have arrived in Missouri.

Gen. Harney has been ordered to the Kansas border, with directions to exterminate Montgomery's band.

A rupture in the Cabinet is expected. Cobb and Thompson threaten to resign, because of the President's position in regard to secession.

STILL LATER.

From the dispatches to the San Francisco Bulletin of the 8th inst., we gather the following:

St. Louis, Nov. 24th.—I must give the southern dispatches as they receive them, although I cannot vouch for their correctness.

Gov. Moore will convene the Legislature of Louisiana on the 10th of December.

The bill appropriating one million of dollars to arm and equip Georgia, in compliance with the resolutions of the last session of the Legislature of that State, requiring the Governor to convene the Legislature upon the election of a Republican President, was passed.

The Mobile Register declares in favor of secession. It says that the late Presidential election proves that a common government for the North and South is impossible. All efforts in vain, save an impossible appeal to the conservative men to take the government in hand, as the only means of avoiding worse consequences. Revolution is inevitable.

Senator Toombs has not yet resigned, but he will do so on the 3d of March, unless Georgia should secede before that period.

The Convention Bill had passed the Georgia Senate unanimously. The election of delegates will take place on the 2d of January, the Convention to meet on Wednesday following.

An immense meeting of the disaffected met at Montgomery, Ala., on the night of the 17th. Yancey and Watts were unanimously nominated delegates to the State Convention.

Judge Wade, of the Supreme court, had said at Washington that four fifths of the people of Savannah were opposed to secession.

Governor Magoffin published a letter in the Kentucky papers taking ground against secession.

A dispatch to the Associated Press, dated Richmond, 17th November, says that Virginia will maintain an armed neutrality until she is prepared to offer her services as a mediator. She will join the seceding States if the programme she will propose be not adopted, which is a repeal of the State laws nullifying the fugitive slave law, the recognition of a right to carry slave property into the Territories and its protection there, and that neither Congress nor the Executive shall interfere, except for the protection of slave property, when necessary.

A Richmond paper of the 10th, says that Virginia can arm 25,000 men; she has sixty bronze rifled field pieces and howitzers, and one hundred barrels of Dupont gunpowder. She has made a contract for 3,000 shells and grape shot, and other warlike preparations are progressing.

Ten thousand stand of arms are now being distributed in Mississippi by the order of the Governor.

The New York Herald's Charleston correspondent, of the 17th, says that the leading merchants had raised a secession pole with the State flag on it, amidst tremendous cheers. There was prayer on the occasion by Rev. Mr. Judson. Speeches were also made. The Washington Artillery fired a salute of one hundred guns, the bells were rung, secession badges displayed, and the Marseilaise Hymn was sung. The vessels in the harbor raised a general flag.

THE VERY LATEST.

We find the following additional items in the Union of Dec. 7th:

The Southern Troubles.—Floyd, Secretary of War, has expressed a determination to hand over the arsenals in South Carolina in fact to his successor on the 4th of March. An attempt to seize them will inevitably lead to serious consequences.

Alexander Otero delegate from New Mexico, is writing home, advising his constituents to join the Pacific Confederacy, should the Union be dissolved, and Californians at Washington declare their purpose of advocating an independent Republic on the Pacific.

The New York Herald's Washington dispatch of November 20th says the Cabinet is on the verge of breaking up, on the disunion issue, which may occur before the meeting of Congress. A portion of the Message on the subject is still under consideration.—The President insists that he must and will insist upon the execution of the laws. The idea of a peaceable secession is a fallacy. In this view Cass and Black concur; Holt, Floyd, Cobb and Thompson hold that the Constitution is merely a compact and may be broken at any moment by a sovereign State.

The Message will be presented on the 3d day of the session, and advance copies will be sent to Boston and Richmond.

The same correspondent says authentic information from the South is received that nineteen-twentieths of the slave holders in the cotton States—who did not, however, compose one-tenth of the voters—deprecate the secession movements.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has returned from his trip to Arkansas, and States that three-fourths of the people are opposed to any disunion movement.

Political.—Bell's plurality in Virginia is 1,700 certain.

All but four counties in Missouri give Douglas a majority over Bell of 478.

Official returns from Illinois give Lincoln 172,545; Douglass, 160,749; Bell, 4,846; Breckinridge, 2,332.

The vote of Texas is as follows: Breckinridge, 44,000; Bell, 14,000.

Tennessee has gone for Bell and Everett by a plurality of 5,063.

The official vote of Pennsylvania: Lincoln, 268,518 Reading (Dem.) ticket, 175,896; Douglas, 17,350; Bell 12,754.

In accordance with the suggestion of the Governor, the Georgia Legislature resolved not to elect electors. Breckinridge having failed to receive a majority.

Kansas.—From accounts received it appears that the notorious Capt. Montgomery's band of five or six hundred men, armed with Sharp's rifles and revolvers, had commenced ravaging Bourbon county last week, driving citizens from their homes and murdering them. Five were murdered: Samuel Scott, Moore, Hinds, Harrison, and one other. Five prisoners probably shared the same fate. Judge Williams, of the United States Court, and other Federal officers, were driven to Missouri. Their object was to drive out pro-slavery men from the Territory, invade Missouri and run off slaves.

Dentistry.—DR. ISAAC KELLY, who has been for some time established in business in Visalia, is in Hornitos, and proposes remaining there until the 18th inst. Those who require the services of a good Dentist will do well to give the Doctor a call. If required he will visit Mariposa during the coming week. Address, DR. I. C. KELLY, Hornitos.

Holmes mentions a Soiree at Music Hall, in Visalia, on the 5th inst. Forty ladies present.

Latest News by Donkey Express.

TO LOG TOWN—THENCE TELEGRAPHED TO THE COURT HOUSE—THENCE OVERLAND BY OUR FAT BOY.

Dispatches from our Pike County Correspondent—Expressly for the "Gazette."

SECESSION AND DISUNION!

Wise and "J. B." in a "Muss!"

ELECTION NEWS!

Nova Scotia for Douglas!

West India Islands for Bell & Everett

OUR FOREIGN BUDGET!

Movements of the Prince of Wales.

Domestic and Miscellaneous Items.

The Donkey Express arrived at Log Town late last evening. The latest dates are Pike County, December 1st. Our dispatches are dated Log Town December 10th, 75 minutes and 97 seconds past 11 P. M.—We have been at great expense to head off the associated Press, and to get up a suitable elongated Sensation Heading for this article. Our innate modesty prevents any extended comments upon the grandeur of this enterprise and the astonishing results likely to flow from it. Great is Allah!—Here's luck:

Secession Movements.—The Governor of South Carolina has condescended to hold an audience with J. Buchanan, Esq., of Washington City. The result will be known by next Express.—☞Copies of the GAZETTE with the full particulars will be furnished at a small advance from the customary rates.☜

A Washington letter writer, an intimate friend of "J. B., made some inqury of him in relation to the course he intended to pursue. His reply was "Dry up, you d—d fool." The knowing ones think he will do just as he pleases.

At a meeting of the Disunionists held at Charleston the 31st of Nov., resolutions were introduced condemnatory of the course of Whisky Flat in contributing so liberally to the Washington Monument. They passed unanimously. Also a resolution daring Josh Giddings and Bill Seward to come across their State line. The meeting was held in the evening by the light of torches. Candles, being manufactured at the North, are a forbidden luxury. The Tar River, District in North Carolina endorses the Pine Knot movement.

Report says that Wise of Virginia, and Buchanan—J. B., of Washington—had a street fight. Wise wound it up by knocking Buck down with a brick, inflicting a fatal but not dangerous wound upon the head. Portions of the brain protruded,—a triumphant refutation of the slanders of his enemies who have been industriously circulating reports to the effect that he had none.

Bark Anna Maria arrived at Charleston—freighted with long-handled shovels. Supposed that the Secessionists will go to work immediately and dig up the State. Ship loads of soil are already on the way to Cuba.

Election News.—Every Southern State has gone for Breckinridge by various and numerous large and small overwhelming majorities—showing a material increase over the vote of next year.

It is thought Bell's chances in Missouri were as good or worse, if not better than Douglas', who is either ahead of Lincoln or Breckinridge, or behind both of 'em, it is not known which.

It is supposed that Bell's chances were better or worse in most of the Southern States, than they at ways were and always will be.

Bets are offered that the election came off in Arkansas on the 6th of November.

Douglas has carried everything east of the State of Maine.

The West India Islands have gone ——— (either for somebody or to some place—this portion of the dispatch is nearly illegible. It is either "for Bell" or "to —ll.")

Foreign.—The Prince of Wales has arrived at his mother's house in good health. The old lady dropped her spectacles in springing to embrace him, and broke one of the glasses out.

The "Movements" of the Prince at last accounts, were very rapid. He was catching fleas.

The Queen is said to be ———. That will make ten.

Lord Palmerston invited Albert Edward to an oyster supper. Tom Sayers was present. Duke of Newcastle stood the lager. Oil man Albert (Vic's husband) was there.

SECOND DISPATCH.—Albert E. sends his compliments to the editor of the GAZETTE.

Domestic and Miscellaneous.—Another Sickles case will occur in Washington in a few days. Everything is fixed for it but the shooting. The "injured husband," who is a prominent member of Congress, is out daily, practicing with a pair of Derringers—doubled barrelled, large bore, rifled and elegantly mounted, such is female society among the "Upper Ten" at the Capitol.

A barn was struck by lightning in New Hampshire for a short time on the 29th ult., and an old man, a pair of oxen and a horse seriously killed. He leaves two small wives and a children to lose his mourning.

Abe Lincoln will be on hand on the 4th of March next, to assist at the inauguration ceremonies, which are expected to take place at Washington, if the weather is fine.

Steve Douglas is very sick but it is thought there is a slim and beautiful chance for his recovery. All that medical skill and the experienced "nussing" of an affectionate mother can do, will be done.

☞Don't forget that the next Donkey will bring worse news and more of it, and that single copies of the GAZETTE can be obtained at a slight advance from the usual rates.

How to command Success.—To be a successful merchant requires fidelity to business engagements, perseverance under difficulties, integrity and courtesy in all transactions, and a liberal expenditure in advertising. These constitute the chief points, and are each and all rounds in the ladder of fortune that must eventually assist a firm to the summit. There is no better exemplification of this than the history of Quincy Hall, of this city. From a small stock and extremely limited capital it has become the noted clothing mart of the State, and its proprietors are reaping the reward of years of energetic endeavor and faithfulness to the public.—Purchasers from every part of the State congregate there, and when once made customers they remain reliable friends of the house, each assisting in increasing its business by their cordial good will and commendation. A trade of this kind it is a pride to build up.—S. F. Call

We are informed through Mr. WILSON, of A. N. Fisher & Co.'s line, that it is the intention of the proprietors to run a Daily Mail from Stockton to Mariposa, and Tri-Weekly to Visalia. Success to the enterprise, for we need it.

Mr. Elias, of Hornitos, has just returned from the "Bay City" with an extensive stock of clothing and dry goods. He opens his new store this week.

Death from Eating Matches.—On Thursday, a little child 2½ years of age, whose parents reside on Kearny street, between Sacramento and California streets, died from the effects of phosphorus. The child on Saturday last got hold of a box of matches, and had eaten off the noxious substance from a number before it was discovered. Medical aid protracted the life of the little sufferer for five days, but could afford no permanent relief.—San Francisco Call, 1st inst.

JIMMY JONES AND HIS PARROT.

BY THE BARD OF QUINCY HALL

Jimmy Jones, not over prudent,
Had a very prudent wife,
And his conduct, as a husband,
Led to some domestic strife.

Once he bought a pretty parrot,
And an eagle for it paid;
To his home he went rejoicing
O'er the bargain he had made.

"Foolish man!" exclaimed his lady,
"Buying birds to eat our bread!
What on earth could put such nonsense
In your good for nothing head?

"I, myself, can do the talking!
You may laugh, 'tis so indeed!
I can talk from night 'till morning,
And no parrot's help I need!

"You are wanting clothes for Sunday,
And the money fooled away
For that squaling, bawling parret,
For a decent coat would pay."

"Where, my dear?" replied the husband,
"For a sum so very small
Could I buy a coat?" The parrot
Quickly answered; "Quincy Hall!"

"Quincy Hall!" exclaimed the lady,
"Bless my heart! What have I heard?
Mercy on us! Jimmy darling,
Did you hear that cunning bird?"

"Yes, I did," replied the husband,
"And you see the bird is cute;
To Quincy Hall we'll hasten,
And there buy a Sunday suit."

It was bought, and fifteen dollars
On the suit he really saved,
Mrs. Jones, amazed, delighted,
Said, "You've heretofore been shaved!

"But that darling, little parrot
Which gave rise to such a squall,
Turned your steps from other places,
To the famous QUINCY HALL.

"You have saved the price of Polly,
On your suit, you plainly see!
And at least, five dollars over,
Which will buy a dress for me!

"Your expenses now for clothing
Will be very, very small,
And we'll make a pet of Polly
For her saying, "QUINCY HALL!"

149 and 151 Washington street, Montgomery Block. dec11 1m.

Execution.

At Carson City, Nov. 30th, a man named Carr (that is not his true name) was hung for the murder of Barnard Cherry. The Bulletin correspondent says that before being swung off Carr came to the platform. There was a smile on his countenance, and, with his right hand raised to heaven, he thus spoke:

My Dear Brothers and Sisters—I have but a few moments to live. I stand upon the brink of that awful eternity, to which we are all hastening. I feel that I have not performed my duty to my fellowmen and to my God, until I have given this assembled multitude my experience as to the causes which have brought me to that terrible fate which now awaits me. I stand before you the doomed felon—the murderer. I did not arrive at my present standard on the celander of crime at a single step. No! I was once the innocent and spotless child, free from guilte, the son of a fond, dear, Christian mother and father, who looked forward from my childhood days to those of manhood and mature years, with hopes that their son would become an ornament to society, and a follower of the meek and lowly Jesus. But, alas! that fell destroyer of the human soul, Satan, in an unguarded moment, persuaded me to commit a trivial offence, and prompted me to hide it by equivocating to that dear, fond mother. I was then led on, step by step, from one degree of crime to another, until, at last, I stand before you, the robber, perjurer, seducer—and the crowning act of crime known to the laws of God or man—that of murder; my hands reeking and steeped in human gore.

Let me say to the young and rising generation, with all the heartfelt emotions and sensations which a condemned criminal can feel for his fellow men, do not disregard the teachings of your dear, Christian mother; shun the company of the wicked and vicious. Think not that a trivial crime will be disregarded by the Almighty. It was the first crime which I committed that brought me where I am.—Shun the intoxicating cup; its influence is evil; it has the effect to send your immortal soul to hell.

To my friends of more mature years, I would say: If you are familiar with crime, whatever may be its character or grade, stop now; go no farther; turn from sin to righteousness, and endeavor to secure salvation to your sinful souls through the efficacy of the blood of our dear Redeemer that was shed on Calvary. What I have failed to express in words, I trust you will be able to comprehend in your hearts. I have but a few moments more to live. I believe I shall meet with forgiveness from the Throne of Grace.

To the many friends I see around me, and to all my dear brothers and sisters, I say shun vice as you would the upas tree. Its blight is more destructive, because it destroys your immortal souls! As I desire to devote the remaining moments allotted me in this life to prayer and supplication, I would bid you all an affectionate farewell. May God bless you all!

The Official Vote.—The Sacramento Union says, the Secretary of State, in presence of the Governor and other State officials, opened and counted the official returns on Monday. The result is as follows: Average Republican vote, 38,721½; average Douglas vote, 37,984½; average Breckinridge vote, 33,971; average Bell vote, 9,113½; scattering votes, 17; total vote, 119,807½. Lincoln's majority over Douglas, 737; Lincoln's majority over Breckinridge, 4,750; Douglas' majority over Breckinridge, 4,013.

The majority required to carry the Constitutional Convention question would be 59,905; total vote for Convention, 59,702; majority against Convention 173.

The vote for paying the State Debt was largely in the ascendency.

Jo Lane and R. J. Walker.—All accounts agree that Gen. Joe Lane is behaving himself remarkably well since the election, and has taken strong and earnest ground against all that tends to put the Union in peril. He and Foster, the defeated candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, lately met at the Presidential mansion, and humorously congratulated each other. The conversation became satirical before it was over, but ended in nothing particularly ill-natured.

Among the many propositions for bringing peace to the country is one that will no doubt be greatly discussed. It originated with the Hon. Robert J. Walker, and is to the effect that if the Presidential electors could be elected in single districts, as representatives in Congress are chosen, in all the States in the Union, there would be no danger of a mere geographical or sectional party. Gov. Walker, at an early day, intends to elaborate this idea.—Cor. of the Bulletin.

"Sail in Boys."

Since the election of Lincoln has become a fixed fact, the doctrine "to the victors belong the spoils," has obtained a wonderful degree of popularity among the jubilant Repubs, and, as a consequence, there has been a great demand, at all the principal bookstores in the state, for copies of the "blue book," to the end that the late "ardent and anxious" among the "victors" may become more fully informed as to the extent and value of the Federal offices to be filled in the "redeemed and regenerated" Golden State. So great has become the demand for this new popular work that the entire edition on the the Pacific coast, has already been exhausted, and the San Francisco News has come to the aid of these new "seekers after knowledge, and publishes a detailed list of the Federal offices in this State, from which we condense the following :—

| | |
|---|---|
| Collector of San Francisco, per year | $7,500 |
| Two Deputy Collectors, each | 3,125 |
| Seven Assistants $2,500 each | 15,750 |
| Four at 2,100 | 8,400 |
| Naval Officer | 6,250 |
| Five Assistants, 1,500 each | 7,500 |
| Surveyor of Port of San Francisco | 6,125 |
| Deputy | 2,500 |
| Weigher and Measurer | 2,500 |
| Six Assistants 900 each | 4,400 |
| Forty Inspectors and other officers averaging about 1,500 each | 60,000 |
| Three Appraisers, 3,000 each | 9,000 |
| Four Assistants at 2,500 each | 5,000 |
| Two Examiners, 2,000 each | 4,000 |
| Superintendent Warehouse Department | 2,500 |
| Four Clerks, 2,100 each | 8,400 |
| Fifteen Assistants and Laborers at $1,000 each | 15,000 |
| Surgeon U. S Marine Hospital | 3,000 |
| One Assistant | 2,000 |
| Three Assistants at 1,200 each | 3,600 |
| Nurses, Cooks, Laborers, &c., about | 10,000 |
| Collector of Sacramento | 3,000 |
| Collector of Stockton | 3,000 |
| Collector of Benecia | 3,000 |
| Collector of San Diego | 3,000 |
| Collector of San Pedro | 3,000 |
| Collector of Monterey | 3,000 |
| Five Clerks to the above, 1,200 each | 6,000 |

[The principal business required of the officers at the six above mentioned ports is to make out their bills quarterly and receipt for the same.]

| | |
|---|---|
| U. S. Surveyor General | 4,500 |
| Fourteen Clerks at 2,000 each | 28,000 |
| Superintendent Indian affairs | 4,000 |
| Clerk | 2,500 |
| Three Sub Agents, at 3,000 each | 9,000 |
| Eight Sub Agents and Clerks, at 1,500 each | 9,000 |
| Navy Agent, San Francisco | 4,000 |
| Civil Engineer | 3,000 |
| One Clerk at 3,000, and three at 2,500 each | 10,500 |
| One at | 2,500 |
| Postmaster at San Francisco | 4,000 |
| Deputy | 3,600 |
| Cashier and Clerk, at 3,000 each | 6,000 |
| Eight Clerks | 16,000 |
| Four Clerks | 5,400 |
| Postmaster at Sacramento | 4,000 |
| Postmaster at Marysville | 4,000 |
| Chief Clerk | 2,400 |
| Assistant | 1,500 |
| Superintendent of the Mint | 3,500 |
| Treasurer | 4,500 |
| Cashier and Assayer, at 3,000 | 6,000 |
| Two Assistants at 3,000 each | 6,000 |
| Two at 2,500 each | 5,000 |
| Six Clerks at 2,005 each | 12,000 |
| Three Inspectors of Drugs, Boilers, &c | 4,500 |
| Four Light House Keepers, at 1,000 each | 4,000 |
| Six Land Office Registers at 2,000 each | 12,000 |
| Six Land Office Receivers | 3,000 |

But the Marshals and Attorneys, are not to have over $6,000 a year each, nor the Clerks over $3,500. There are two Deputy Marshals in the Northern District who receive each, $2,400. And there is one Circuit Court Clerk who receives fees, but is not entitled to retain over $7,000 per annum.

In addition to the above, there are about 350 Postmasters in the State, besides those enumerated above, to say nothing of the host of mail contractors and their subordinates, and the Government employees at the Navy Yard, whose name is legion.

Sail in boys, and pick your places. But let those who choose to earn an honest living by hard labor remember that "Uncle Sam has land enough to give us all a farm."—Nevada National.

Material for Lincoln's cabinet.—The N. Y. Herald of the 20th, publishes a long letter from Springfield, Illinois, giving the political gossip of that place. The following names are talked of as likely to be among those from whom a Cabinet will be selected:

SECRETARY OF STATE.

Judge McLane of Pennsylvania,
Judge Read, do
David Wilmot, do
Senator Fessenden of Maine,
Senator Chase of Ohio,
Edward Bates of Missouri.

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

Moses H. Grinnell of New York,
Senator Simmons of Rhode Island,
John Sherman M. C. of Ohio,
Kenneth Raynor of North Carolina,
Senator Collamer of Vermont.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL.

Fitz Henry Warren of Iowa,
Senator Chandler of Michigan,
Schuyler Colfax of Indiana,
N. B. Judd of Illinois.

SECRETARY OF WAR.

Frank P. Blair Jr. of Missouri,
Cassius M. Clay of Kentucky,
John Minor Botts of Virginia,
Benjamin Wade of Ohio.

SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.

Simon Cameron of Pennsylvania,
John A. Gilmer of North Carolina,
John P. Hale of New Hampshire,

SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

Ga'usha A. Grow of Pennsylvania,
Emerson Ethertige of Tennessee,
John Hickman of Pennsylvania.

ATTORNEY GENERAL.

William L. Dayton of New Jersey,
H. Winter Davis of Maryland,
Judge Nelson of Tennessee,
Judge Charles Allen of Massachusetts,
Wm. E. Evarts of New York.

One item in the programme much talked of is the precise position to be extended to Col. J. C Fremont. The post of Minister to France is named, and it is said, with how much truth I know not, that he would accept it should it be offered to him. He speaks the French language correctly and with great ease, and is acquainted with several other languages—a man of great firmness, with military taste and experience, and an accomplished gentleman, and would undoubtedly represent the United States at the Court of Napoleon III. with distinguished honor to himself and credit to the country.

Rains in November for ten years.—Dr. Gibbons has industriously kept a meteorological table for the last ten years in this section of California. From a late tabular statement made by him we compile the following facts regarding november rains in California. In 1850, the third week in November was rainy in the mines, but none here before the 25th. In 1851, November 8th, a heavy rain, and moderate showers on the 16th, 18th, 20th and 26th. In 1852, November 9th, the winter rains set in. In 1853, a smart shower November 9th; and on the 14th the first rain to lay the dust completely.—In 1854, the only rain in this month was on the 18th, and none afterwards that year, until the last day of the year, save a slight shower, December 3d. In 1855, Nov, 10th, 11th and 13th, moderate rains. In 1856, November 15th, winter rains set in. In 1857, October 6th, 7th and 8th, heavy rain. No more after this till November In 1858, very little rain in November. In 1859, the winter rains set in during the first week in November, without any preliminaries. This year, 1860, we have had, thus far, but two or three rainy days.—San Francisco Alta.

Newspaper Statistics.—An exchange says that there are about three hundred daily papers at the present time published in the United States.—Five hundred and seven thousand copies is estimated as the regular circulation of the daily press, or 84,080,000 copies per annum. There are also about two thousand five hundred tri weeklies, semi-weeklies and weeklies, which would probably make the number of newspapers annually distributed throughout the United States amount to 412,800,000. A first class daily paper in such a city as New York has generally twelve editors and reporters, forty printers, two proof-readers, thirteen pressmen, engineers and other employees in the press room, half a dozen correspondents in Europe, two or three regular correspondents in Washington, thirty-five persons in the clerk, wrapping and mailing departments, and as many more engaged as carriers.

....We find in all countries multitudes of persons physically brave, but few in any who are morally courageous.

....The effect of medicine often depends far less upon what it is than upon who it is that gives it.

....Some men admire woman as she is; a good many more as she isn't.

Arabs cultivate the feelings, and are a nation of bandits; they are exceedingly generous, and exceedingly hospitable, and exceedingly unjust; they utter the noblest sentiments, and steal the saddle from under you; they talk of the magnanimity of the Bedouin, and then cut your throat.

Patronize the Press.—An exchange says several Irishmen were trying the other day to decipher a notice headed "Public Sale." This notice, although written tolerably plain, could not be read by the Emeralds and they requested us to read it for them, which of course we did. At the conclusion one of them turned to his comrades and remarked in a very impressive tone:

"Well, be jabers, I'll niver buy of a man who's so nagardly that he won't get advertisements printed; he's chated the printer, and he'd chate me as well.,"

Many a poor woman thinks she can do nothing without a husband, and when she gets one, finds she can do nothing with one.

Special Notice.—To relieve suffering has been the object of the humane and philanthropic in all ages; before the practice of medicine became a science the sick were publicly exposed in the open air, and every passer by named the remedy he considered most suitable for the complaint. We possess at the present day through the agency of the press a more reliable mode of conveying information to our suffering fellow creatures. Those afflicted with scrofula, curtaneous, and eruptive diseases will find in the columns of almost every newspaper and Periodical published; certificates and testimonials from those who have been speedily cured of these dreadful complaints by the purifying and powerfully regenerative qualities of Sands' Sarsaparilla. feb57th

District Court Summons.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE 13TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT, OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, in and for the County of Stanislaus.

John Rudolph, Plaintiff. vs. Mary A. Rudolph, Defendant. | Action brought in the District Court of the 13th Judicial District of the State of California, in and for the County of Stanislaus.

and the Complaint filed in said County of Stanislaus, in the office of the Clerk of said District Court, Oct. 24, A. D. 1860.

The People of the State of California, send Greeting to MARY A. RUDOLPH:

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named Plaintiff in the District Court of the thirteenth Judicial District of the State of California, in and for the County of Stanislaus, and to answer the Complaint filed therein, (a copy of which accompanies this Summons) within ten days, (exclusive of the day of service,) after the service on you of this Summons—if served within this county; or, if served out of this county, but within this Judicial District, within twenty days; or if served out of said District, then within forty days—or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to obtain a judgment or decree of Divorce from the bonds of Matrimony now existing between the said Plaintiff and the said Defendant, and for such further relief as to the court may seem just.

And you are hereby notified, that if you fail to appear and answer the said Complaint as above required, the said Plaintiff will take default herein and apply to the court for the relief prayed for.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the District Court of the Thirteenth Judicial District, of the State of California, in and for the County of Stanislaus, this 2nd day of October, in the year of our Lord One Thousand, Eight Hundred and Sixty.

SOOTHING SYRUP

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

Which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

Sure to Regulate the Bowels.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, in a SINGLE INSTANCE, to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction on the part of any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations and speak in terms of the highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter that WE DO KNOW, "after ten years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with unexampled success in

THOUSANDS OF CASES,

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will relieve almost instantly and overcome convulsions, which if not speedily remedied, end in death—We believe this the best and SUREST REMEDY in the WORLD, in all CASES OF DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from other causes. We would say to EVERY mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints, DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

The Profession well know that different Cathartics act on different portions of the bowels.

The FAMILY CATHARTIC PILL has, with due reference to this well established fact, been compounded from a variety of the purest vegetable Extracts, which act on every part of the alimentary canal, and are composed and safe in all cases where a Cathartic is needed, such as Derangements of the Stomach, Sleepiness, Costiveness, Pains in the head, Sick-head and Loins, Pain and Soreness over the whole body, from sudden cold, which frequently results, if neglected, end in a long course of Fever, Loss of Appetite, a Creeping Sensation of cold over the Body, Restlessness, Headache, or weight in the head, all Inflammatory Diseases, Worms in Children or Adults, Rheumatism, Bad Blood and many diseases Worms in Children are the result of

Mariposa Gazette

THE REMAINDER.—The sub committee of a school board near Lynn, Mass., were examining a class in one of the primary schools. A member of the committee, somewhat famous in the neighborhood as a gourmond, undertook to sharpen up the wits of the scholars by propounding the following question:

"If I had a mince pie, and should give two-twelfths to Isaac, two twelfths to John, two twelfths to Harry, and should keep half of the pie for myself, what would there be left?"

There was a profound study in the school for a moment; but finally a little fellow with bright eyes and smiling countenance, held up his hand as a signal that he desired to answer the question.

"Well, sir," said the examining member of the board, addressing himself to the lad with an air of triumph—"My young master, what would there be left?"

"The plate!" shouted Young America, while a roar of laughter went up from every part of the densely crowded building.

☞ "Did the defendant knock the plaintiff down with malice prefence?"

"No, sir, he knocked him down with a flat iron."

"You misunderstand me, my friend; I want to know whether he attacked him with evil intent?"

"Oh, no, sir; it was outside the tent."

"No, no; I wish you to tell me whether the attack was at all a preconcerted affair."

"No, sir; it was not a free concert night—it was a circus."

☞ "Can you draw, young man?" inquired Quilp of an applicant for a private tutorship. "Certainly," replied the candidate. "At ten years of age I could draw cider; at twelve, a picture; at fifteen, a hand-cart loaded with cabbages; at sixteen, an inference; at twenty, a bill of exchange. If I were an actor, I believe I could draw the largest kind of a house; but being a teacher, I am content to draw a salary, and the bigger the better." "You'll do," said Quilp.

SPUNKY.—In St. Louis, recently, a man and his wife were engaged in arranging a separation. The principal difficulty was the baby, which the woman tearfully begged to be allowed to keep, while the man angrily refused. At length the wife almost threw the child into the husband's arms, and exclaimed, "Take it, I can soon have another!"

.....As a good reason for discontinuing a paper, a western printer thus goeth it:

"We strike the names of two of our subscribers from our books this week, who have recently been hung in Texas. We do this because we are not advised, as yet, of their present locality." Very good reason, to be sure.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

The history of this great remedy is the most wonderful medical revelation that the world has ever known. It is not a history written by one man, or even derived from the experiences of one nation, but consists of a compilation of testimonials from the sick of every country—a record, the like of which has never been adduced in favor of any discovery or invention since time began.

BILLIOUS DISORDERS

In whatever form disease attacks the liver, it is repelled and exterminated by this searching, painless and irresistible curative.

Let the sick whom the faculty have abandoned, resort with confidence to this powerful antibilious agent, and a restoration to health and activity will be the unvarying result.

DYSPEPSIA.

The great scourge of this continent yields quickly to a course of these antiseptic Pills, and the digestive organs are restored to their proper tone; no matter in what hideous shape this hydra of disease exhibits itself, this searching and unerring remedy disperses it from the patient's system.

General Debility & Weakness.

From whatever cause, lowness of spirits, and all other signs of a diseased liver, and other disorganization of the system, vanish, under the eradicating influence of this all powerful antiseptic and detergent remedy.

SICKLY FEMALES

Should lose no time in trying a few doses of this regulating and renovating remedy; whatever may be their complaint, it can be taken with safety in all periodical and other disorganizations; its effect is all but miraculous.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:

Asthma, Bowel Complaints, Fever and Ague, Female Complaints, Fevers of Sprits, Gout, Headaches, Indigestion, Influenza, Inflammation, Inward Weakness, Liver Complaints, Lowness of Spirits, Piles, Stone and Gravel, Secondary Symptoms, Venerial Affections, Worms of all kinds, Coughs, Colds, Chest Diseases, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Debility.

☞ Caution!—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernible as a Watermark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

 Sold at the manufactory of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the United States and the civilized world, in pots, at 25 cents, 62 cents, and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N B—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorders are affixed to each pot. dec29

The Eyes! The Eyes!

DR. E. H. PARDEE,

OCULIST—After a protracted blindness of more than five years, DR. PARDEE has made himself thoroughly and scientifically acquainted with all diseases of the Eye, and has now been in practice eight years in San Francisco with a success that cannot be surpassed in any part of the United States; and for proof of this he will substantiate by cases that have been cured by him, after having exhausted the skill of all the eminent Oculists in the cities of Boston, Philadelphia and New York. Dr. P. wholly objects to the use of caustic, blue stone—keeping the patient in a dark room, dieting, blistering, cupping—the blue pill at night and salts in the morning, etc., etc. DR. PARDEE has also been remarkably successful in the treatment of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and all pains about the head; and the frequent calls that he has for his Rheumatic mixture from all parts of this coast, with the many testimonials, is positive proof of its efficacy; and to prevent answering many inquiries by letter, he will state that it can be sent to any part of the State or coast, and each bottle will be accompanied with full directions and a receipt for a liniment, magical in its effects over pain, ingredients of which can be procured any where, price $10. The ARTIFICIAL EYES inserted by Dr. P. have all the natural movements of the real eye, and cannot be detected even by close inspection. Address

Importers and Wholesale Dealers!

Entire New and Fresh Stock

WE WOULD CALL THE ATTENTION OF

COUNTRY MERCHANTS

To our unusually large Stock of Goods. Our stock comprises every article in the Clothing and Furnishing Line.

We have constantly on hand the largest stock and greatest variety of CASSIMERE, WOOL and STRAW HATS, of any house in the city, and our prices for these Goods are less than those of any other house; as we receive them direct from the manufacturer, on CONSIGNMENT.

Our Stock of

Spring and Summer Goods,

Is particulary attractive, and the great feature to the COUNTRY MERCHANT is the unusually low price—less than the cost of importation.

We also keep the STAPLE ARTICLES in the DRY GOODS LINE, which Goods we have purchased in this market under the HAMMER, and are offering them at New York Cost, and less

We publish this CARD in order that we may make new acquaintances, and induce those who have not before purchased of us, to call and inspect our Stock.

All that we ask, is an opportunity to SHOW THE GOODS and name the prices, and we have no fear of the result. Good articles and Low Prices are the great inducements to all who purchase to sell again.

Merchants who buy of us can make a good profit and sell to their customers a low figure.

We remain, respectfully,
